JAMAICAN JERK CHICKEN

CHEF YEN KOH

“Jerk” is a style of Jamaican cooking in which meats are dry-rubbed or marinated with a very hot spice mixture called Jamaican jerk spice. Thyme is an important ingredient, and this spice mix can be used for pork, red meats and seafood.”

INGREDIENTS

- Salt 1 tsp
- All spice powder 2 tsp
- Ground thyme 1 tsp
- Onion powder 1 tsp
- Garlic powder 1 tsp
- Nutmeg 1/2 tsp
- Black pepper 11/2 tsp
- Canola oil 5 tsp
- Chicken breast, skinless 800g

STEPS

1. Mix all the spices and salt in a bowl. Add the oil, and mix to form a paste.
2. Rub seasoning over the chicken breast, and marinate for at least 2 hours or overnight.
3. On a grill, cook each portion of the marinated chicken for 2 minutes on each side.
4. Transfer to a rack and continue to cook in an pre-heated oven at 190°C for 6 minutes or until cooked.
5. Serve with a vegetable side dish or salad.

HEALTHY COOKING TIPS

1. Grilling or baking, instead of deep frying, is a great way to create tasty dishes that are healthier and lower in fat.
2. Leaner cuts of meat (such as skinless chicken breast, lean pork or beef) are flavourful yet lower in fat. To enhance their healthfulness, remove the visible fat and skin before cooking.
3. Instead of salt, use fresh herbs and spices to add interesting and varied flavours to your dishes.
